Lebala Camp Kwando Reserve, Linyanti

Hidden in the Southern portion of the extensive Kwando wilderness of 232 000 ha. (550 000 acres) is Lebala Camp. Kwando Lebala Camp comprises 16 beds in 8 luxurious tents, on Zimbabwe teak decks. Each tent comprises a spacious bedroom area, bathroom including a Victorian ball and claw bath tub and double basin, outside reeded shower, dressing area, and side entrance to preserve privacy.

Lebala is the Tswana word for wide-open plains, and each tent has extensive views over expansive tracts of African plains and wetlands, that comprise part of the Kwando-Linyanti flood plain system. This system is an intricate labyrinth of waterways, reed beds, islands, floodplains, bush, scrub and trees. To those in the know - somewhat Okavango like but something different too.

Excellent general game abounds on the broad plains, creating spectacular scenery, adorned with herds of plains game and the ever-attendant predators. Lebala offers regular and reliable sightings of elephant, lion, wild dog, leopard, cheetah, giraffe, zebra, tsessebe, kudu, lechwe, impala, wildebeest and waterbuck in stunning settings. Lebala is famous for elephant sightings as is neighbouring Lagoon camp, 2 hours drive north. In fact the Kwando concession is home to more elephant than the entire country of South Africa.

Kwando Safaris was founded to give our guests a true African safari - just what you would expect - but more.

- 8 ensuite tents.
- walking safaris (season dependant) game drives, night drives guide and spotter on vehicle.
- Arguably Africa's best camp for wild dog.
- Isolated wilderness area.
- hide in places for superb game viewing.

Our View

Located on the edges of a natural flood land, Lebala camp has slowly become renowned for both its superb guiding and excellent location in the Kwando concession. One of the best things about using all of the Kwando camps, in our opinion, is that, with an extra spotter used on game drives, the chances of seeing everything around are that much higher. The camp itself, with spacious and cool tents is very luxurious and a perfect place from which to explore the surrounding areas. They regularly have wild dog denning in the concession and, with a birding hide on hand, the game viewing can be spectacular. Personally, this is my preferred camp out of the three....but only just!
