Nxabega Camp Okavango Delta

On the edge of the Delta, in an exclusive wildlife concession on the western border of the Moremi Wildlife Reserve lies the luxury tented camp of Nxabega. Situated near permanent channels of the Okavango Delta, Nxabega Okavango Safari Camp has ten East African-style safari tents on raised wooden platforms with private decks overlooking a vast floodplain in front of camp.

All tents have an en suite shower and W.C. and are elegantly furnished with wardrobes, luggage racks, chairs, dressing tables and bedside tables. The magnificent elevated main building is constructed in local timber, reed and thatch with sweeping views over the plains in front.

The camp, run by a bunch of great characters such as Nicola the lodge manager and Effie comprises a dining room, sitting room and expansive decking areas to lounge around on, sip gin and tonics and watch game directly from camp. There is an outside dining area and a swimming pool for afternoon dips when the sun gets too strong and sun loungers for much needed siestas.

- 9 African style safari tents.
- Walking safaris, game drives, boat rides and all possible.
- Swimming pool.

Our View

Nxabega is a good tented camp. It is not a great tented camp but it fits the CCAfrica model of good standards of accommodation with good levels of guiding and high quality food and service. The rooms are smart but there is little to set you alight here....and the communal areas are similar. To add to the doom and gloom, the area is nice but it is not known for its concentrations of large game. It is a beautiful area to explore the smaller things in the Okavango.....but for quality safari we would go elsewhere. Great food though!
