SPECIALISTS IN TRAVEL TO BOTSWANA

The River Club Victoria Falls

Located upstream from Victoria Falls, The River Club has the most attractive settings of all of the lodges on the banks of the Zambezi. Edwardian in style and with immaculate private gardens, the River Club oozes character from the moment you arrive: this is a place you want to return to again and again.

Set up high on the escarpment, the lodge looks out over one of the widest stretches of the Zambezi and onto the bush beyond. The charm is in the sheer beauty of this setting offering a calm, tranquil retreat away from the hustle of Victoria Falls in one of the most relaxed and friendly atmospheres that you will find. With one of the most attractive infinity pools in all of Africa this is the perfect place to start or end your safari from.

The 10 luxury chalets are spread around the gardens offering privacy and intimacy to every guest with fantastic views through their open fronts dropping down and across the river below. All rooms are ensuite and some have the opportunity for guests to lie in the bath and admire the view. The main dining room and lounge area make up the main communal area: a well appointed Edwardian style house with an impressive library and veranda giving guests the perfect opportunity to wind away an afternoon in complete relaxation. There is even a well mown croquet lawn for the more adventurous, gin soaked few.

- 10 Luxury river fronted rooms.
- Stunning views.
- Infinity swimming pool.
- Boat safari and village trips possible along with all Victoria Falls activities possible.

Our View

The River Club has the most amazing views all of the lodges on the banks of the Zambezi and for that reason alone, we view it as the best lodge at Victoria falls. The overall charm is in the sheer beauty of this setting but the rooms and service are also superb. The best rooms are the Honeymoon room (the BEST views although not so 'private' as it is so close to main area)... Latunga is great but it is a very private room, Baines is also a great room. We love the communal areas at the River Club, they are without doubt better than Tongabezi and Islands of Siankaba, giving guests a stunning area to relax in. And what a swimming pool!
